In re Daniel Arman

Decision: Denial of application for plumbing journey examination application pursuant to the Michigan Skilled Trades Regulation Act, MCL 339.6115 (1)(d)(i).

Agency: Bureau of Construction Codes

Case Type: Licensing

Issued and Entered

This 18th day of April 2023
By Andrew Brisbo, Director
Bureau of Construction Codes
Department of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs

Pursuant to MCL 339.6105 and Executive Order 2017-3, Mr. Daniel Arman's appeal regarding the Bureau of Construction Codes' decision to deny his application for plumbing journey examination was presented in a regularly scheduled, public meeting before the State Plumbing Board on April 18, 2023. After considering the parties' written submissions and oral arguments, the State Plumbing Board unanimously voted to recommend that the Department of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs affirm the denial of Mr. Arman's application for a plumbing journey examination.

On April 18, 2023, the State Plumbing Board issued a written recommendation that the Department of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs deny Mr. Arman's appeal and affirm the Bureau of Construction Codes' decision to deny his application for journey plumbing examination because he failed to establish the necessary experience requirements in MCL 339.6115 (1)(d)(i).

FINAL DECISION AND ORDER

After reviewing the record of Mr. Arman's application and appeal and considering the recommendation of the State Plumbing Board, the Department of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs denies Mr. Daniel Arman's appeal and affirms the Bureau of Construction Codes' decision to deny Mr. Arman's application for journey plumbing examination due to a lack of experience as required by MCL 339.6115 (1)(d)(i).

This Order shall be effective on the date signed below by the Director of the Bureau of Construction Codes.
